

I can't believe that a party so committed to the decentralization of power from the Federal Government to the states and local municipalities would interfere with the State acting on the overwhelming opinion of the citizens.

If you like telemarketing would you please supply me with your direct office number and home phone number so that I can be sure you get all the calls you want.